Remembrance 100: 100 days of Prayer

On Sunday, 4 August 1918, the fourth anniversary of the declaration of war, King George V and Queen Mary joined members of the House of Commons and the House of Lords for a special service at the Church of Saint Margaret, Westminster. The King had asked that 4 August 1918 should be observed as a National Day of Prayer: 100 days later the war ended.

On 4 August 2018 churches across the country, across the spectrum of denominations, start 100 days of prayer, peace and reconciliation. This is being called Remembrance 100.

A prayer for peace :

Almighty Father,
whose will is to restore all things
in your beloved Son, the King of all:
govern the hearts and minds of those in authority,
and bring the families of the nations,
divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin,
to be subject to his just and gentle rule;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

GOSPEL GRACE AND TRUTH

'We ask God to give you complete knowledge of his will and to give you spiritual wisdom and understanding. Then the way you live will always honour and please the Lord, and your lives will produce every kind of good fruit.'

COLOSSIANS 1:9,10 (NEW LIVING TRANSLATION)

- SUN 19 Father, thank You for the Bible which has had a life-changing impact on a myriad of civilisations and cultures. May Your Spirit bring this Word of life to the hearts and minds of those who seek after truth, that they might trust in Your Son. Amen.
- MON 20 Ask God to pour grace and truth upon individuals who have found faith in the risen Christ from religious and political backgrounds that are fundamentally opposed to Christianity. Pray for courage and wisdom as they face rejection and persecution.
- TUES 21 Pray for every adult and child who is attending Christian holiday clubs, missions, camps, house parties, festivals and other events over the summer – especially those who are not yet believers. Ask God to impress on people's hearts the reality of His grace and truth.
- WED 22 Lord, please equip and encourage all those who enable local churches to bless their communities by providing half of all toddler and parent groups, the biggest network of debt counsellors, thousands of food banks and night shelters in over one hundred areas. Amen.
- THURS 23 Pray about the growing influence of ministries like Prison Fellowship and Alpha for Prisons, operating in over 800 prisons in 55 countries, sharing the good news to prisoners and give them new purpose, direction and faith. (prisonfellowship.org.uk) (alpha.org/prisons)
- FRI 24 THANKSGIVING for the work and witness of Christians in all walks of life. Ask God to inspire and enable them to speak and act with the wisdom, integrity and compassion that comes from Him, to be effective 'light and salt' in the world.
- SAT 25 Remember those who have the responsibility to preach and ask the Holy Spirit to inspire and anoint everyone who tomorrow will expound God's word in church services and through many other outlets that exist for the sharing of the gospel.

'Outside of the cross of Jesus Christ, there is no hope in this world. That cross and resurrection at the core of the Gospel is the only hope for humanity. Wherever you go, ask God for wisdom on how to get that Gospel in, even in the toughest situations of life.' (Ravi Zacharias, theologian, evangelist and writer.)
