The book of Proverbs

Proverbs is one of the five “wisdom books” of the Bible. The other four are Job, Psalms, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon (Song of Songs). While it is a book about wisdom and how we can and should pursue that, the book is ultimately a guide to pleasing God and our fellow man.

King Solomon – son of King David - is thought to have been responsible for writing most of the Proverbs. In 2 Chronicles 1:8 we are told that God asked Solomon what he would like and Solomon requested wisdom and knowledge so that “he may lead these people.” Verse 11 tells us that God was pleased with Solomon since he did not ask for wealth or honour, so he granted him wisdom, knowledge, and wealth. This wisdom is evident throughout the book.

A proverb is defined as a statement of general truth or advice. We will be using the following verses in our service today.

Proverbs 3:1-10

My child, don't forget what I teach you. Always remember what I tell you to do.

My teaching will give you a long and prosperous life.

Never let go of loyalty and faithfulness. Tie them around your neck; write them on your heart.

If you do this, both God and people will be pleased with you.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart. Never rely on what you think you know.

Remember the Lord in everything you do, and he will show you the right way.

Never let yourself think that you are wiser than you are; simply obey the Lord and refuse to do wrong.

If you do, it will be like good medicine, healing your wounds and easing your pains.

Honour the Lord by making him an offering from the best of all that your land produces.

If you do, your barns will be filled with grain, and you will have too much wine to store it all.

Generous God,

At this harvest time we thank you for all the good things you give us.

*As we thank you for our food,
we remember all those who do not have enough for even one proper meal each day.*

Lord, Bless all those who suffer because of the greed of others.

*We pray for those who are also homeless,
and those who depend on the charity of others.*

We thank you for all the volunteers who give their time to help others, and for our local foodbank, providing food for those in need.

*Help us to share the harvests of the world more fairly,
so everyone can be fed and there will be no more starvation.*

Lord of the harvest hear our prayer
